[Left margin: Receiued Sept. 9.] The humble petition of yo[u]r Majesties most loyall subjects whose names are here underwitten in the behalfe of themselves & many others

Most gracious Soueraigne

The speed of that suite & service which we owe to yo[u]r Maj[es]tie & our earnest affection to the good & welfare of yo[u]r Realme of England hath moued us in all humility to beseech yo[u]r Royall Maj[es]tie to giue us leaue to offer to yo[u]r princely wisdom the apprehension which we & others of yo[u]r faithfull Subjects haue conceiued of the great distemper & danger now threatning the Church & State & yo[u]r Royall person, & of the fittest meanes by which they may be remoued & prevented.

The Euill & Damgages whereof your Maj[es]tie may be pleased to take notice are

That yo[u]r Majesties sacred p[er]son is exposed to hazard & danger in the present expedition against the Scottes armie, & by this the occasion of this warre yo[u]r reuenues much wasted yo[u]r subjects much burthened with Coate & Conducte mony, Billiting of soldiers raised for that service & your whole kingdome become full of Care & discontent.

The sundry Innovations in matters of Religion, the Oath & Canons lately imposed upon the Clergie & other yo[u]r Maj[es]t[y]'s subjects, the great increase of Popery & employing of Popish recusants & others evill affected to yo[u]r Religion by lawe established in places of power & trust especially in Commanding men & armes both in the Field & in sundry Countries of this yo[u]r Realme, Whereas by the lawes they are p[er]mitted to haue no Armes in their owne houses. The Greate mischief which may fall upon this kingdome if the intention w[hi]ch hath credibly been reported of bringing in Irish & forreine forces should take effect. The vrging of Shipmony & prosecution of Sheriffes in the Starre-Chamber for not levying it. The heauie charges upon Merchandise to the discouraging of Trade The multitude of Monopolies & other patents whereby the Commodities & Manufactures of this kingdome are much burthened, to the great & uniu[er]sall greevance of yo[u]r people.

The great grieve of the Subjects by the long intermission of Parliaments & the late & former dissolving of such as haue beene called without the happie effect which otherwise they might haue produced.

[Left margin:Remedy] For Remedie whereof & the prevention of danger which may ensue to yo[u]r Royall person & the whole State.

They doe in all humility & faithfulness beseech yo[u]r most excellent Maj[es]tie that you wold be pleased to summon a Parliament within some shorte & convenient time, whereby the cause of these & other great greivances which yo[u]r people lie under may be taken away, & the Authors & Councillors of them may be brought to such legall Tryall & condigne punishment as the nature of their severall offences shall require, & the present warre may be composed by yo[u]r wisdom without effusion of blood, in such manner as may conduce, to the hono[u]r & safetie of yo[u]r Maj[es]tis person, the Comfort of yo[u]r people, & the vnity of both yo[u]r Realmes, against Common enemies of Reformed Religion.

[Left margin:See below Three-leaved flower] And your Maj[es]ties Petitioners shall alwaies pray &c. see belowe Three-leaved flower .

'Tis said by some that this Petition was made by xij Nobles Erle of warwicke, ~~{gap: illegible}~~ Lord Say &c. Some say that the Counsell did joine excepting &c Others say that some of the privy Counsell undertooke the deliury of it. But it is reported (as materiall if true) that his Majestie enclineth, & that Commissioners are appointed to treat with the Scottes (who be aduancing) upon the 10th of this s September./ There is also a reporte that teh Scottes being willing to referre all to an English Parliament, doe affirme yt if his Maj[es]tie dare not trust a Parliament in Scotland nor yet in England that he is but in evill case.
